

PERSONAL STATEMENT Pre-Writing Exercises

Exercise #1: Storytelling

Step 1: List several experiences that relate to the field or profession you want to study.

Step 2: From the list, choose the experience that best encapsulates your interest in the field or profession and which would give the admissions committee a complete picture of you and your passion and potential for this field or profession.

Step 3: Then answer the following questions.

How does the story explain your personality?

Where in the story does the reader get a sense of your passions? Your dreams/goals?

Where in your story do you explain why you have chosen to study this particular field? Try to add this if there is not clear explanation of this?

In what ways does the story describe potential research interests (for Ph.D. programs) or a specific focus you are interested in pursuing during graduate and professional school (for MA and some professional programs)?

Where in your story do you address why you are a good candidate for the program you are applying to, considering its values and approach to education?

How well does the story convey that you are prepared to begin studying this field?

How does this story illustrate/relate to your long-term professional goals or career path? If it doesn't, please try to add that.

Step 4: Share the story or important themes in your personal statement. Explain the significance of the story or how the themes relate to the career field you are pursuing.

Exercise #2: (Part 1) List of Skills and Traits

Highlight the skills and traits in each category of skills that you feel you possess and would like to emphasize in your personal statement. Then, go on to Part 2, the Attribute Map.

Exercise #2: (Part 2) Attribute Map

- Step 1: Choose one of the skills you have highlighted above and connect it to a significant experience or situation.
- Step 2: Brainstorm additional skills or attributes gained from the specific experience.
- Step 3: Repeat the process and make connections between experiences with shared skills.
- Step 4: Decide on experiences and skills you can confidently discuss in your personal statement and which would illustrate your passion and suitability for graduate or professional study.
